The below is a chart listing your wages as reported by employers for the period that your claim covers. Review the listed wages to ensure they are correct. You must have sufficient wages for your claim to continue. If you do not, your claim will not be reviewed for benefit eligibility.

Q1/2019: 01/01/2019 - 03/31/2019
Q3/2019: 07/01/2019 - 09/30/2019

Based on the earnings in the chart of wages, your weekly benefit amount is listed below. If you have an amount listed, your claim moves on to the next step in the process and will be reviewed to determine your eligibility to receive benefits (i.e. did you lose your job through no fault of your own).

$112.00 Per Week

$2,912.00 Total

How do I Appeal? If you disagree with the wage amounts or have missing wages in the chart of wages, you must file an appeal by 4/26/2020. Information on how to file an appeal may be found in the Claimant Handbook (see section "What if I Disagree with a Benefit Decision") or at www.in.gov/dwd/2356.htm. If you do not disagree with the wage amounts and are self-employed, a gig worker or otherwise do not have sufficient wages to establish a regular unemployment insurance claim, you do not need to appeal. Instead, you are likely eligible for Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA). For more information, visit www.unemployment.in.gov, and link to Pandemic Unemployment Assistance.

This is typically the first determination you will receive about your claim. Be sure to read all emails and determinations thoroughly. If there is anything on a communication that you do not understand, please call the Contact Center at (800) 891-6499.

How does the department figure out the weekly and total dollar amounts of unemployment benefits? The maximum amount a claimant can be eligible for under Indiana law is $390 per week or $10,140 per year. Your individual wages will be used to calculate your benefit amount. See sample below.

Base period wage	Divide by 52 weeks	Multiply by .47	Weekly Benefit Amount (WBA)*	WBA X 26 weeks	Maximum Benefit Amount (MBA)
$26,000.00	$500.00	$235.00	$235.00	$6,110.00	$6,110.00

** The benefit amount is rounded down to the nearest dollar.

How do I get additional information about my claim and next steps? Check your Claimant Homepage frequently for the latest information about your claim.

You filed an Unemployment claim on 04/13/2020. Your claim begins on 04/12/2020 and ends on 04/10/2021.

You must submit a weekly voucher (request for payment) for each week you wish to file unemployment. Think of this as submitting your time sheet with your employer. You must complete the weekly voucher for the previous week by 8:59 p.m. Eastern time on Saturday to be considered timely. The first day you can submit your voucher is 4/19/2020.
